

OCR Notice of Nondiscrimination

Source: HHS Office for Civil Rights

Woman’s Hospital complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

Woman’s Hospital does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

Woman’s Hospital provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:

- Qualified sign language interpreters
- Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats)

Woman’s Hospital provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:

- Qualified interpreters
- Information written in other languages

If you need these services, call 225-927-1300 and ask the Hospital Operator to contact the Nursing House Supervisor.

If you believe that Woman’s Hospital has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with:

Woman’s Patient Relations Department by calling 225-231-5555, or the state agency, Department of Health and Hospitals, and shall be provided with the name, address, and telephone number of the agency upon request.
